

UNDER ANNEX 1:

By signing this document the parent explicitly gives the consent for the data to be used for the following purposes. Furthermore the provided e-mail address can be used for sending the Educational Contract, which can be signed electronically.

Ljubljana International School (hereinafter: LIS) is a controller of personal data and undertakes to process and protect all personal data obtained in accordance with applicable legislation and regulations.

For the purpose of implementing educational programs, LIS collects and processes the following personal data of the parent and the child:

- personal data, which LIS is required to collect and process in order to fulfil its legal obligations (under the Kindergarten Act, the Primary School Act and other basic regulations, which apply within the framework of the implementation of education) to which LIS is subject,
- personal data, of which the processing is necessary for the implementation of this Agreement or for the purpose of the child's education,
- personal data, which is necessary for the protection of the vital interests of the child or of another natural person,
- personal data, of which the processing is necessary for legitimate interests,
- personal data for which the data subject has given consent for one or more specific purposes (The legal basis is the individual's voluntary consent, in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Personal Data Protection Act (ZVOP-2)).

The period for which personal data is retained depends on the purpose of processing a particular category of personal data and the legal basis for processing, whereby personal data are retained only for as long as is necessary to achieve the purpose for which they were collected or processed. Personal data are deleted or destroyed after the purpose of processing has been fulfilled, unless otherwise provided for by law for particular types of personal data.

Under the conditions set out in the applicable legislation and this contract, the individual has the right to:

- access to or rectification of personal data,
- rectification of personal data and completion of incomplete data,
- erasure of personal data (1 – if the personal data are no longer necessary for the purpose for which they were collected or are otherwise processed; 2 – if the individual withdraws consent to the processing of personal data for data processed on the basis of consent; 3 – if the individual objects to the processing of personal data for the purpose of direct marketing based on the legitimate interest of the processor; 4 – if the processing of personal data is carried out without appropriate grounds),
- restriction of processing (1 – if the individual to whom the personal data relate disputes the accuracy of the data, namely for a period enabling the course provider to verify the accuracy of the personal data, 2 – if the processing is unlawful and the individual to whom the personal data relate opposes the erasure of personal data and instead requests the restriction of their use, 3 - if the course provider no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of processing, but the individual, the data subject needs the personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, 4 – if the data subject has lodged an objection to the processing of the data, until it is verified whether the legitimate grounds of the controller override those of the data subject),
- objection to processing for a specific purpose,
- data portability in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to whom the personal data have been provided,
- objection to the processing of personal data,
- withdrawal of consent to processing or revocation of consent.

If the parent has given consent to the processing of personal data and it is processed on the basis of consent for one or more specific purposes, but then he/she no longer wishes to do so, they may request the termination of the processing of personal data (withdrawal of consent to processing or revocation of consent) by sending a request by e-mail to office@lissa.si or gdpr@lissa.si or by regular mail to the Ljubljana International School, vrtec in šola Rakovniška ulica 5, 1000 Ljubljana (or the address listed as the official address of the preschool- school, in the even that the official address changes).

By enrolling a child at LIS, the parent agrees that personal information they pass on to the school at the time of enrolment can be used for following school years unless specifically requested otherwise by the parent.

For more information about personal data, the Parent can always access the Privacy Policy via the website www.lissa.si, while furthermore they are entitled to any information, regarding their personal data, at the headquarters of LIS, by regular mail to the Ljubljana International School, vrtec in šola Rakovniška ulica 5, 1000 Ljubljana, or via e- mail office@lissa.si or gdpr@lissa.si.
